Networking That Works

Converting Real-Life Connections Into Leads With Your Professional Brand

Networking is a critical strategy for driving business growth, but it can often feel daunting to initiate and sustain meaningful connections. In this talk, Anna-Vija breaks down the networking process with a clear, step-by-step approach. Learn how to strategically plan, prioritize, and follow up to stay top-of-mind and position yourself as a standout in your industry. This empowering session will provide practical tools to unlock your network’s potential—demonstrating how a simple but intentional hello can lead to your next big referral.
